TWO DESTROYERS SUNK

SAYS BERLIN OFFICIALLY.
LONDON, England, Dec. 18.—A Reuters' dispatch from Berlin says that the official statement of the North Sea raid issued yesterday claims that in the fight between the British destroyers and the German cruisers off Hartlepool two of the destroyers were sunk, while a third fled badly damaged. The British admiral's official statement does not mention the loss of any warship, but states that five men were killed and fifteen wounded aboard the cruiser Patrol and the destroyer Daen during the fighting.

VENICE TIGERS
BOOST HAWAII
ON THEIR RETURN

The Venice Tigers proved their good sportsmanship when they returned to the mainland, by forgetting the unpleasantness that tied up their baseball prospects here and saying nothing but good of Honolulu and Honolulu people. They also had a boost for several ball players, including Lang Akana, Kan Yin and Barney Joy. The San Francisco Chronicle of the 10th says:

Members of the party who reached San Francisco yesterday on the Sonoma from Honolulu are full of praise for their reception at the hands of the islanders, although they admit that through a misunderstanding they were prevented from playing their full schedule of games.

Jack Bliss, who managed the party, is enthusiastic over the outing. Jack has a lot of dope as well regarding ball players he saw and chaps he thinks would have a future in this country.

He is particularly interested in a Chinese outfielder who has signed a contract with McCredie of the Portland team. His name is Akana and he's a left-handed hitter with a burst of speed. About as large as Jerry Downs, Bliss thinks he will have every chance in the world of sticking with the Beavers.

Bliss also was attracted by a Chinese catcher who appears to have the goods.

Barney Joy, old-time Seal, is in better shape than ever, according to the boys. Barney works regularly in a foundry and pitches now and then when the occasion permits. He worked one game against the coast delegation and showed some stuff. There is gossip that Joy would like to take another fling at the game in this country, providing he is granted the opportunity.

"Our trip was spoiled in a way through a misunderstanding," explains Bliss. "As originally planned, we were to leave here on November 4, but had to postpone our trip until the 10th of the month. When we arrived the park people with whom Bert Lowry had a contract to use their grounds sued him for the Saturday and Sunday we were scheduled to play but did not appear. He objected to giving them the percentage they wanted and they brought suit."

New Tanker for Coast Service.

A new oil carrier for service in the Pacific has been launched at San Francisco, the vessel being named the J. A. Moffett and will be operated by the Standard Oil Company. Mrs. Helen Moffett Barker, daughter of the Standard Oil official after whom the tanker is named, appeared as sponsor for the vessel at its introduction to the water.
